Background [max 300 words]

The Europe countries are in different stages related with digital broadcasting and digital radio. Albania made progress on digital switchover process. The strategy for digital switchover approved on 2012 is mainly focused on television. The digital radio is not yet in place in Albania and in other countries in the region. The capacity building for legal and regulatory framework for digital radio is needed.

Proposal

Initiating a regional project for capacity building relating digital radio implementation. Actions to be considering: training on technical aspects for this process, and necessary regulatory measures for appropriate implementation of digital radio.
