

Online Safety: Contemporary Challenges 2020

Video Flow

Introduction

Welcoming speeches:

- 1) Antti Hartikainen - EUAM
- 2) Mykhailo Fedorov - Minister of the Ministry of Digital Transformation
- 3) Doreen Bogdan-Martin - ITU

World and Ukraine: contemporary online harms and the ways to combat them

Online risks and dangers / New challenges and problems of their perception

Tetyana Kovalchuk - Ministry of Internal Affairs

Online safety: world trends

Gulsanna Mamedieva – Ministry of Digital Transformation

Transforming the Cyberpolice in order to cope with the challenges

Serhiy Kropyva - First Deputy Chief of the Cyber Police Department of the National Police of Ukraine

How to help citizens to deal with online abuse: UK experience; the impact of COVID

David Wright – South West Grid for Learning

Australian E-safety Commissioner (3 videos)

- Part 1 is an Introduction from the eSafety Commissioner, Julie Inman Grant
- Part 2 is a Presentation providing an overview of eSafety's work, including Safety by Design, narrated by Ella Serry from the International Strategy and Futures Team
- Part 3 is the Closing remarks from the Commissioner

Panel discussion: Ways to build a safer online space in Ukraine

Moderator: Volodymyr Pavelko

Participants:

1. Andrii Kuzmich – Chief of the State's Cybersecurity Centre of the State's Special Communications and Information Protection Service
2. Tetyana Kovalchuk – Deputy Minister of Interior
3. Oleksandr Fedienko – Member of the Parliament
4. Gulsanna Mamedieva – Ministry of Digital Transformation

Exercising human rights in a digital world: the impact of COVID-19 and modern challenges

Oleksandr Burmahin - Human Rights Platform

Kiril Milev - The European Union Advisory Mission

Panel discussion: The role of industry in building a secure online space - blocking materials and problems with legislation

Moderator: Oleksandr Burmahin

Participants:

1. Mykhailo Shalembo – Head of Datagroup, leading Ukrainian service provider
2. Gulsanna Mamedieva – Ministry of Digital Transformation
3. Emma Hardy - Internet Watch Foundation
4. Serhiy Kropyva - Head of the Cyberpolice
5. Maksym Savchenko – Chief Legal Counsel, Kyivstar

Children

Video of a victim

Rihana Marie Collins Foundation UK

Statement on online safety issues

Mama Fatima Singhateh – UN Special Rapporteur on sale the and sexual exploitation of children

Global/European strategy of ITU COP Guidelines

Jaroslav Ponder – ITU

ITU COP Guidelines: content and related materials

Sarah Delporte – ITU

Internet Watch Foundation Experience

Emma Hardy – Internet Watch Foundation

Lotta Sylwander – UNICEF Representative in Ukraine

Naira Avetisyan – Chief of Child Protection Programme UNICEF

Strategy and Action Plan on online child protection

Valeriya Ionan – Ministry of Digital Transformation of Ukraine

Child safety online – Sweden's experience

Susanne Drakborg – World Childhood Foundation

Presentation of the results of the study of online child sexual abuse

Kseniya Hinchuk – NGO Resource Center

Children Online Safety. Advice for parents

Mykola Kuleba – Ombudsman for children's rights

Children safety in the digital world. New challenges and their consequences

Anna Malimonenko, Inspector-chief on special assignments of the Juvenile Prevention Department of the Division of Preventive Activities

Examples and the role of parents and carers in protecting children online

Anastasiya Diakova – Stopsexting NGO

Why posts in social networks about children could damage their futures?

Anastasia Apetyk – MinZmin

Panel discussion: Cyberbullying

Moderator: Anastasiia Apetyk

Participants:

1. Bohdan Moisa – Expert at DOCUDAYS NGO
2. Vlad Levchuk – Representative of youth
3. Iurii Kutsul – Juvenile Prevention Police
4. Oksana Savvytska – Governmental expert of the Ministry of Education
5. Oleksandra Kovalenko – Governmental expert of the Ministry of Digital Transformation

Criminal and criminal procedural measures against online sexual exploitation and violence against children

Viktoria Mozgova - Ukrainian Institute of the Future

Adults (video intro)

Activism against online-violence

Daryna Mizina – Amnesty International

The effect of pornography on the brain of a child and of an adult.

Why are parental control programs important?

Maryia Makhukha – psychologist at Altera Centre

Change your password right now. How not to turn black boxes of technology into

Pandora's boxes

Andrii Brodetskyi - journalist, Technology, media and society blog

Panel discussion: the gender component in online violence: why do women and girls suffer from revenge porn, stalking and cyberbullying?

Moderator: Keteryna Mitieeva – Amnesty International

Participants:

1. Alyona Kryvulyak – La Strada
2. Daryna Mizina – Amnesty International
3. Kateryna Pavlychenko – Ministry of Internal Affairs
4. Narmina Strishenets – UN Women
5. Gulsanna Mamedieva – Ministry of Digital Transformation

Engagement in human trafficking and sexual exploitation: new risks

Nadiia Kondybina - OSCE

Internet Safety: The role of personal data protection

Dmytro Korchynskyi – Privacy Hub

Panel discussion: Artificial Intelligence and Safety

Moderator: Vitalii Honcharuk

Participants:

1. Borys Pratsiuk – CTO at Scalarr.io
2. Maksym Bugriy – _____ (Analyst on safety issues)
3. Dmytro Nikandrov – Director Of Engineering at GlobalLogic
4. Oleksandr Serdiuk – CEO at Respeecher
5. Maksym Prasolov, Founder and Board Member, Neuromation, USA

Revenge Porn Helpline Experience

Sophie Mortimer – Revenge Porn Helpline

Protection against revenge porn: world's best practices and Ukrainian context

Kateryna Hryshchenko - DEJURE Foundation

Life online

Step back. How do disinformation and fakes steal our future?

Maksym Skubenko – Vox Check

Not like everyone else. How Ukraine differs from the world in the fight against misinformation

Tetiana Tsyba - Member of the Ukrainian Parliament

Panel Discussion: Freedom of expression and fighting against fakes

Moderator: Maksym Skubenko

Olga Iurkova – Stopfake

Nadiia Romanenko – Texty.org

Taras Shevchenko – Deputy Minister of Culture and Information Policy

Oksana Romaniuk – Institute of mass information

Ihor Rozkladai - Centre of Democracy and the Rule of Law

Tetiana Tsyba - Member of the Ukrainian Parliament

Online-media in Ukraine growing up like mushrooms. What is going on?

Ihor Rozkladai - Centre of Democracy and the Rule of Law

Freedom of speech and users' safety: Are we really allowed to publish everything?

Maksym Dvorovyi – Laboratory of Digital Safety

Digital literacy as a road to happiness

Ruslana Korenchuk – Ministry of Digital Transformation

Piracy – immediate threat

Ivan Shestakov – Head of strategic development at MEGOGO

Gaming: a platform for social communication of children and youth. Opportunities and hidden threats

Oleh Rybalka - Ukrainian Professional Esports Association

TBC

TikTok