Child Online Protection Policy-makers Guidelines

ITU Publications

International Telecommunication Union
Development sector

Guidelines for policy-makers on Child Online Protection 2020

ITU

David Wright

Director UK Safer Internet Centre, SWGfL
Child Online Protection Expert, ITU

> "Every child everywhere must be Protected online. We must make it our global priority and we must act now. ".

Her Majesty Queen Slivia of Sweden at the launch of the COP 2020 Guidelines, 23 June 2020

Child Online Protection

INTRODUCTION

- What is Child Online Protection?
- The Impact of technology on children's digital experience
- Key Threats and Harms for Children Online
- Children with vulnerabilities
- Children's perceptions of Online Risks

Child Online Protection

Preparing for a National Child Online Protection Strategy

- Actors and Stakeholders
- Existing responses for Child Online Protection
- Examples of responses to online harms
- Benefits of a National Child Online Protection Strategy

Recommendations for Framework and Implementation

- Framework Recommendations
- Recommendations for Implementation

Child Online Protection

A National checklist

- Legal Framework
- Regulatory Framework
- Reporting - illegal content
- Reporting - User concerns
- Actors and Stakeholders
- Research

- Education Digital Literacy and Competency
- Educational Resources
- Child Protection
- National Awareness
- Tools, services and settings

Call to action

- Implementation of Guidelines
- Feedback to ITU
- Contact ITU for more interest

Together we will protect and empower children

www.itu.int/cop

www.itu-cop-guidelines.com