

ITU RED-AFRICA REGIONAL ECONOMIC DIALOGUE FOR AFRICA: Meaningful and Affordable Digital Connectivity for Africa

Leandro Vieira
Chairman of the Board of Directors
Autoridade Reguladora Nacional das Tecnologias de Informação e
Comunicação (ARN)
Guinea Bissau

Leandro Vieira is the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the National Regulatory Authority (ARN) in Guinea-Bissau.

Before he became the Chairman of Board Directors, Leandro was a member of employee and the Director of Direction of Communication and Information Systems at (ARN). He has joined the company since June 2017 moreover he has extensive experience over fifteen years in the area of Electronic and Telecommunications Engineering. His recent activities include Senior Business Consultant Specializing in Information Technology in Lisbon (Portugal) where he lived and studied over Thirty years.

Leandro graduated in Electronic and Telecommunication Engineering at the University of Aveiro in Portugal from January 2013 to April 2015. His main duties as Senior Advisor activities include participation in the implementation of the solution for monitoring systems and applications using HP OpenView (Operations for Unix, SPI for SAP, SPI for Oracle, SPI for Informix) In TMN.

Previously Leandro Viera worked for a company called Guberni Lda, in Coimbra (Portugal) from February 2007 to December 2012, which is a company specializing in software development and services and consultancy in the area of Information Technology Infrastructure Management.