

ITU Policy and Economic Colloquium for the Americas IPEC-22 Regional Economic Dialogue (RED)

Javier Lizárraga Galindo
VP of Networks
Samsung (LatinAmerica)

Javier Lizárraga Galindo is an Engineer from the Instituto Tecnológico y de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey, with 34 years of experience in public and private sectors. Joined IBM in 1985 for 11 years working in different positions in Mexico and US, in manufacturing, business development, sales and consulting services. Joined Motorola in 1996 with several responsibilities in strategy, innovation, business development, services and sales responsibilities in the Latin-American region. In 2009 was appointed by Mexican president as General Manager of Telecomunicaciones de Mexico, in 2013 took the position of chief of staff for telecommunications sector with the Secretary of Communications and Transportation of the Mexican Government, to work in the telecommunications reform for Mexico, also was the leader of the transition to the digital tv in Mexico, after that, was appointed Coordinator of the Information and Knowledge Society until Nov 2018, actually is VP of Networks for Samsung in Latinoamérica.