

Mr. LI Bo

Mr. LI Bo obtained Master Degree in Electrical and Electronic Engineering from Newcastle University in the UK.

He joined Huawei Technologies Co., LTD, and worked on research of radio access technologies in 2007. From 2007 to 2014, he focused on research of physical layer technologies for LTE system, and contributed and participated in 3GPP RAN WG. Since 2014, he involved in projects of vertical industries, and focused on spectrum aspects of intelligent transportation system (ITS) and narrow band M2M, and also participated in ITU-R WP 5A.

