

Mr. Samuel Mandla Mchunu

Mandla Mchunu has a B.Sc. degree from University of Zululand and a Post-graduate diploma in Telecommunications studies obtained at Cable and Wireless College in the United Kingdom.

He is currently employed as Manager Radiocommunication by the Independent Communications Authority of South Africa (ICASA).

He has worked in the radio spectrum regulatory environment for more than 20 years covering areas of National radio frequency plan development, radio spectrum licensing & exemptions and Regional frequency coordination. He is currently a Project leader for the South African 5G Forum initiative.