

Mr. Mohamed Saad Almarzooqi

Mohamed Saad Almarzooqi was born in Dubai, UAE, in 1986. He received the B.E. degree in electronic engineering from La Trobe University, Melbourne, Australia, in 2007, and Master of Electronic Engineering from the same University in 2008. In 2009, he joined Spectrum Affairs Department at the TRA of the UAE, as a Senior Engineer Broadcasting Services. He was involved in preparing the UAE National Terrestrial Digital Video Broadcasting Switchover Plan which has been approved by the TRA Board on 31 December 2009 as well as the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) Common DTSO Plan which has been approved during the 20th GCC Ministerial Meeting on 22nd June 2011. Recently he is working on Assisting the GCC Telecom Bureau to develop a common Terrestrial Digital Television Receivers Specification document for GCC countries. His current interest topics include DVB-T, T-DAB, PMSE, and SNG.

