

Dr. – Ing. Michael Mahler

Dr. Michael Mahler is the leader of corporate group in ROBERT BOSCH GmbH on frequency regulation and standardization. He is also the chairman of the ETSI group (ETSI TC ERM - TG UWB) responsible for the ultra- wideband standardization in Europe. He graduated as Dipl.-Ing in Electronics from University of Stuttgart in Germany and obtained PhD degree in Electronics Engineering from the University of Ulm in Germany. Since 2000 he worked several years in various engineering posts for Robert Bosch GmbH ending up with the actual position of leading manager, responsible for international radio regulatory and standardization matters for Robert Bosch.

In 2004, Mr. Mahler started working on the topic of “UWB regulation for sensor applications”. Since then he took various functions in ETSI in the area of Short Range Device regulation and standardization. In 2009 he was appointed as the chairman of the TG UWB of ETSI.