

Title: "Combating counterfeiting in Russia. Key challenges"

Abstract:

The presentation considers challenges and solutions on combating counterfeit in Russia. It defines requirements for technologies to be used for identification of goods and describes advantages and disadvantages of already existing approaches. At the conclusion, we provide our vision of standardization work, required to fight counterfeit using ICT more effective.