Title: FUJITSU Lightening Image Data Solution

Abstract:

We can gather, manage, and analyze only minimized necessary image data from 10 million cars.

Fujitsu's original data reduction technology realizes compact storing of a large amount of image data received from connected cars, and enables cost reduction of network and storage.

Our total system enables customers to provide various services based on on-demand gathering data (Full image) stored in cars and flexible tailoring analyzations.