Imports of AI-related products to the U.S. and Canada

As a share of total imports

— U.S. — Canada

Represents the top 20 AI-related import categories identified by Michael Waugh of the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis, including computer hardware (processors, storage, ADP units), networking (switching and routing apparatus, fibre optic cables), power infrastructure (copper cathodes, switchgear, insulated conductors) and energy storage (lithium-ion batteries for backup power systems). Data downloaded at the HS6-level of imports for cross-country comparison.
