

Biography

Danilo C. Carvalho worked for Telecommunications private sector for a short period, moving to Brazilian National Telecommunications Agency - ANATEL in 2007, at beginning he was involved with satellite issues passing later to the division responsible for regulation related to wholesale markets, including infrastructure shares and relationships between telecom operators and other industries (including energy, content, internet etc.).

Danilo has Bachelor degree in Telecommunication Engineer and postgraduate in Telecommunication Regulation.

Danilo began his participation on ITU at Radiocommunication Bureau and since 2013 he is attending to ITU-T Study Group 3 and his regional groups.

