

REGIONAL STANDARDIZATION FORUM FOR BRIDGING THE STANDARDIZATION GAP (BSG)

Seoul, Korea (Rep. of), 24 October 2017

Sriyani Mawellage is Deputy Director – Competition of Telecommunications Regulatory Commission of Sri Lanka (TRCSL). She received B. Com Special Degree 1995 and Post Graduate of Business Management in 2000 from University of Colombo Sri Lanka. She is reading for Master of Business Administration Kamraj University in India. Sriyani Mawellage joined the TRCSL in 2000 in which she has served as the Assistant Director -Consumer Relation (2000-2010). She was promoted as Deputy Director Competition in 2010 and Mawellage is an active committee member of Telecommunications Development Charge Fund (USO Fund) disbursement project in TRCSL.

She has been active in Universal Access projects conducted by TRCSL in last seven years and contribute to establishment of telecom towers and base stations to rural and remote areas in Sri Lanka. Another project currently underway is “Gamata Sanniwedanaya” (connectivity for Village) to identify unserved and underserved areas to facilitate Broadband to bridge the Digital Divide. Under the project facilitate the access to internet by rural communities and broadband connectivity to computer labs in rural schools. Her current research involves study of proper disposal or reuse of telecommunication/ICT waste material in Sri Lanka and submitted a paper to the ITU relating her findings on Strategies and policies for the proper disposal or reuse of telecommunication/ICT waste material in Sri Lanka.

