Ms. Fang LI, Senior engineer and vice director of Broadband Network Research Department in the Institute of Technology and Standard Research, of China Academy of Information and Communication Technology (CAICT) of Ministry of Industry and Information Technology (MIIT).

She achieved the Master degree in optical communications at Beijing University of Post and Telecommunication in Apr. 1999. Her professional work was focused on the optical and packet transport network technology and standard research area. She participated in ITU-T SG15 since 2003, and contributed more than 70 contributions on WDM, OTN, MPLS-TP, Network Protection and SDN related recommendations. She is a co-editor of G.7702 "Architecture for SDN control of transport networks". She participated in the 2012 and 2016 World Telecommunication Standardization Assemblies (WTSA), and was one of the Working Group Chairman of the ASIA-PACIFIC TELECOMMUNITY (APT) Preparatory Group for WTSA-16.

50 | ITU-T REGIONAL GROUPS 1968~2018