

S.K.Mishra an Indian Civil Servant with a Masters diploma in Public Administration, an M. Phil. in Social Sciences and a Master's degree in 'Sanskrit'. He also holds a Professional Diploma in Training Development (Dip.TD), in addition to an Advanced Professional Diploma in Competition Law and Market Regulation and a professional Course in Telecom Management from BT College, Stone. He is a Life Member of the Indian Institute of Public Administration, Indian Society for Training and development and the Bougainvillea Society of India. Has avid interest in Heritage Conservation, and travel. Over a career spanning about 30 years, he has worked in Government of India in various capacities in Telecom and Posts, dealing with Finance, Project appraisal, Revenue management, Tariff setting and costing, Accounting, Internal Audit, Human Resource Management/Development, Establishment, General Administration and Training. He was Financial Advisor to the Government of India-UNDP (1996-2000) project on 'Human Resource Development and Management in Telecom; executed with the help of ITU.