

Mr. Zemin Yang is the Vice Chairman of the Council and Secretary-General of China Communications Standards Association (CCSA). He used to take positions in succession as Director of The Research Institute of Telecommunication Transmission (RITT) and President of China Academy of Telecommunication Research (CATR) . Since 1982, he has been working in the fundamental planning of the telecom infrastructure in China and the telecommunication standards formulation fields, as well as deeply involved in consultant research activities for the ICT Industries related policies of the Government.