

Hossam Abdel Maoula is the Executive Director for Technical Affairs Department in NTRA since 2005.

He always brings critical understandings to Egypt's telecommunication sector thorough the deep understanding of the status and opportunities of ICT in Egypt, the multinationals culture and the in-house alliance critical for the assembly of needed resources and the educational system in Egypt.

With his guidance, Egypt succeeded fighting the illegal traffic which leads to increment of the national income.

Recently he took the responsibility of enhancing the Quality of service & Quality of experience in Egypt

He is also currently hold a position of vice chair of ITU-T SG2 and also rapporteur for Q3/2.

He is an Associate Professor in Electronics and Communications engineering, he received his Ph.D. degree from Cairo University in 2003.