

UNITED NATIONS
UNIVERSITY

UNU-VIE SCYCLE

Sustainable Cycles Programme

SCYCLE

Programme

E-waste statistics

Groups discussion on the future of e-waste in your countries

April, 2018 – E-waste statistics workshop - Zanzibar

Group discussion

UNITED NATIONS
UNIVERSITY

UNU-VIE SCYCLE
Sustainable Cycles Programme

- Create mixed groups and discuss the questions
- Each group design one person to report the highlights from your group discussion
  - Review all the discussion points in a concise manner

30 minutes
time!

2 minutes per group!

Discussion points

UNITED NATIONS
UNIVERSITY

UNU-VIE SCYCLE
Sustainable Cycles Programme

- What are the 3 main challenges related to e-waste in your country?
- Is there a legislation on e-waste in your country? How is it implemented?
  - Responsibilities, coordination between stakeholders
- Who is responsible for e-waste take back in your country?
  - Organizations / producers / Government
  - Retailers, municipal collection points, and/or pick-up services
- How is the e-waste management situation in your country?
  - Formal / informal recycling sector
- What is the situation of imports of e-waste in your country?
  - What types of e-waste are imported/exported?
  - From / to which countries?
- What are the potential data sources that fits into the UNU measurement framework?
  - Household statistics / Collection points / Questionnaire to the e-waste facility / Registers from waste traders companies / Reports from NGOs / Existing surveys in the country / Statistics from associations / Scientific literature
- What are your expectation for future workshops?
  - Topics, frequency, audience, etc.