

Orange Consulting
114 rue Marcadet
75018 Paris
France

Email: jean-manuel.canet@orange.com
Mobile: +33 6 83 81 09 02

Jean-Manuel CANET

Objective

Candidate for Vice-Chairman, ITU-T Study Group 5

Motivation

Since 2009, Jean-Manuel has been involved in standardization activities in the field of environment and climate change. For the next study period, Jean-Manuel is committed to providing his technical and management experience to SG5 and to contribute to the ITU-T work in order to maintain and reinforce the role of SG5 as well as its worldwide position and influence, in particular in relationship with other UN agencies, other standardization bodies, the academia and the industry.

Standards Experience

Experience in ITU-T

- Vice-Chairman, ITU-T WP3/5, ICT and Climate Change (2013-2016 Study Period)
- Rapporteur, ITU-T Q18/5, Methodologies of environmental and social impact (2009-2016)
- Liaison officer with UNFCCC and ITU-T Joint Concerted Action on Climate Change (2009-2016)

Experience in Other Standards Organizations

- Active member of ETSI Environmental Engineering (EE)
- Member of the Steering Committee of the GHG Protocol ICT Supplement

Industry Experience

- 2008–Present: Orange Consulting, head of Sustainable Development
- 2004–2008: Expertel Consulting, Head of Innovation
- 1998–2003: Expertel Consulting, Manager, Transport and Environment Sector
- 1995–1998: France Telecom FCR, Project Manager, High speed networks
- 1992–1994: French Ministry of Foreign Affairs, seconded to FT Polska, Warsaw, Poland, responsible of studies
- 1990–1991: HP Research Labs, Bristol, United Kingdom, research on high speed networks

Publications, Conferences, Patents

- Numerous speeches at the UNFCCC Conferences of the Parties, on behalf of the ITU; numerous speeches in ITU Conferences and seminars
- Experience as teacher at Telecom ParisTech (European Broadband networks) and Mines ParisTech (ICT sector carbon footprint)
- Member of the Advisory Panel of the « Momentum for Change » UNFCCC initiative, appointed by the Executive Secretary as one of the representatives of the ICT sector

Education

- Engineering Diploma, Telecom ParisTech, 1991
- MBA, Collège des Ingénieurs, Paris 1992
- Certified in Carbon accountancy, advanced level, ADEME, 2010