FABIO BIGI
(Italy)

Nomination for election to Vice-Chairman ITU-T Study Group 20

- Doctorate degree in Electronic Engineering, University of Rome (1967);

- State examination (1967);

- Researcher in Fondazione Ugo Bordoni (1967-1968);

- ITU staff member (November 1968-June 2001) with increasing responsabilities, ending as   Deputy Director of the Telecomunication Standardization Bureau ;

- Consultant for the Italian administration, starting from 2001. In these function he has represented the italian administration in several CEPT and ITU meetings and activities, such   as ITU Council (he has acted as a chair of Council 2011) ;

- Chaired groups during WCIT-12 ;

- During PP-14 he has been the chairman of the group charged with the resolution relatives   to internet ;

- Various Groups of the Council (in the past period he was the chairman of the group for the   preparation of the strategic plan of the union) ;

- WRCs, WTDCs (in WTDC-10 he was chair of the group charged with the strategic planning   and the working methods of the sector and of the declaration of Hyderabad), WTSAs (in WTSA-04 he was chair of the working methods of the sector , WPTF, WSIS) ;

- RAG, TDAG, TSAG (at present vice-chairman,in the previous period was the chairman of the WP charged with the external relations and technology watch functions) ;

- Vice Chairman of ITU-T SG20 "IoTand its applications including smart cities and communities (SC&C)".

Ing. Fabio Bigi