

WANG Yapeng

Education:

- PhD candidate of Aarhus University
- Master of Beijing University of Post and Telecommunication

Present Position:

- Deputy Director of International Cooperation Dept., CAICT of MIIT, responsible for ITU activities in China

Working Experience:

- In 2013 acted as Vice Chair of the Editorial Committee of WTDC of ITU

- In 2019 acted as Vice Chair of Working Group 1 of APT WTDC Preparatory Group

- Membership management and general affairs for ITU activities in China

- Promoted and assisted related enterprises in China to become members of ITU, including sector members, associate members and academia and assisted SMEs of China to participate in the ITU SME pilot project.

- Guided the organization of domestic enterprises and research institutions to facilitate their participation in the activities of the ITU Council and the Plenipotentiary Conferences and their research on related topics, such as APT and inter-regional preparatory meetings

- As a core delegate of the Chinese delegation, prepared for and participated in two ITU Plenipotentiary Conferences, two ITU World Telecommunication Development Conferences, ITU Council 2016-2018 sessions, Virtual consultation of councilors (C20/VCC1&2) and the TDAG-2015 meeting

- Successfully organised the Industry Dialogue Forum during the 2017 BRICS Telecommunications Ministerial Conference

- Led experts from CAICT to successfully signed cooperation agreement with the Directorate-General for Communications Networks, Content and Technology of the European Commission, and successfully applied for FP7 and FP8 projects concerning the Internet of Things (IoT), future networks and cloud computing together with relevant EU companies