

Yana BRUGIER, Political Counsellor ITU, UPU, UNCTAD, Digital

Yana Brugier (born in September 29, 1982) holds a master's degree in Philosophy (Paris IV) and is a graduate of the Paris Institute of Political Studies (Master's degree in International Affairs).

She began her professional career as a cabinet associate for the political group Les Verts at the Paris City Council. After several assignments as a consultant, she worked for five years (2008-2013) at GIP International (Public Interest Group for the Development of Technical Assistance and International Cooperation in the Field of Labor, Employment, vocational training and migration), under the authority of the French Ministry of Labor, Employment, Vocational Training and Social Dialogue.

In 2013, she joined the French Ministry for Europe and Foreign Affairs as a civil servant, and became counsellor at the Africa and Indian Ocean Directorate. Between 2016 and 2020, she worked as a political advisor (domestic policy and press) at the French Embassy in South Africa. Since September 2020, she has joined the Permanent Mission of France to the United Nations Office in Geneva, where she is responsible for monitoring UNCTAD, ITU, UPU and digital.

She speaks French, Portuguese, English and Spanish.