

Mrs Monia JABER KHALFALLAH has been appointed Director of International Cooperation and Foreign Relations at the Ministry of Communication Technologies and Digital Economy in 2018.

She holds a Masters degree in Public Administration from Ecole Nationale d'Administration, ENA, Tunis, a degree in Communication and Diplomacy, ENA, Paris, France and Organization and Management of Central Government, Birmingham University, GB.

Mrs Khalfallah began her career in 1995 as Head of the Planning Statistics and Training Deptment. She was then appointed Deputy Director for International Cooperation and Partnership in 2006, in charge of bilateral relations and coordination of international ICT related events among which ITU's ICT for all, WSIS.

In 2018, she joined ITU Regional Office for Africa to work on the African Girls Can Code Initiative 2018-2022.

She volunteered at ECOSOC in the UN HQ in NYC and chaired the International Diplomatic Spouses Groups in Addis Ababa, and participated in organizing cultural events in partnership with the African Union, the Peace and Security Department and Economic Mission for Africa, ECA.