Domenico ALFIERI

Short biography

Born in Reggio Calabria in 1981, while attending study in Electronic Engineering at University "Mediterranea" of Reggio Calabria he had a fellowship in IMM-CNR (Institute of Microelectronics and Microsystems – National Research Council) of Naples in the field Micro Opto-Electromechanical Systems and Flow Injection analysis.

After graduating, he did experience on private sector in the field of electronic, industrial automation and informatics where he was software development engineer with management responsibilities.

Actually, he works as a technical officer for Italian Ministry of Economic Development – Direction General for Telecommunications and Information security – High Institute for ICT, and he is involved in Internet Governance, Cybersecurity and TETRA Interoperability certifications.

Recent Professional Activity

- Representative for MiSE on the Executive Council of CINI (National Interuniversity Consortium for Informatics) (2019 - now)
- GAC Advisor for Italy in ICANN (2018 - now)
- Vice-Rapporteur on ITU-T Study Group 17 security, languages and telecommunication software (2018 - now)
- Contact person of Certification Body for Interoperability certifications of TETRA (Terrestrial Trunked RAdio) (2018 - now)

Rome, 4 July 2022

Domenico ALFIERI