

Bio Rim BELHAJ

rimbelh@yahoo.fr

mobile: +21622346922

Ms Belhaj's main skills include Information Technologies strategies, Policies and Management, Telecommunication system Architecture, Switching, Broadband & Mobile Networks, Pedagogy & entrepreneurship sensitive to Gender .

As General Engineer in Telecommunications, she teaches broadband and mobile networks at the High Institute of Telecommunication Technologies, ISET'Com.

She is the chair of the ITU-SCV committee and chaired the Com4/editing committee during ITU- PP Dubai - 2018 as well as the Com5 Editing committee during ITU - WTSA Hammamet -2016 Geneva 2022 And WTDC Kigali, 2022.

She held position as Director of Information Technologies and Communication (ICT) promotion at the Ministry of Information Technologies. Among the objectives of this direction were delivering approvals for telecom firms and consulting firms in ICT sector as well as fostering new policies, innovation and R&D in the Tunisian ICT private sector.

She was a Hubert H. Humphrey Fellow at Maryland University (USA) 2001-2002 and a Consultant at the Policy Division (CITPO-GICT), World Bank.

From September 2004 until June 2006, she has been the head of the innovation division at The Technopark Elgazala of Information Technologies.

She has been the founding Chair of the Hubert Humphrey Alumni Association of Tunisia and actually, she is Chair of the Rotary Club Tunis Belvédère 2017/2118.

Her educational background includes:

- a diploma in Management, The EuroArab Management School, Granada Spain & The Institut Arabe des Chefs d'Entreprises Tunis, Tunisia, February 2004,
- a diploma in Depth Studies in systems analysis and digital treatments, telecommunication option, Ecole Nationale d'Ingénieurs de Tunis, ENIT, Tunisia, September 1994,
- a diploma in Telecommunication Engineering, ESPTT, Tunisia, July 1993,
- and a diploma in Electrical Engineering, ENIT, July 1991. From July 2001 to July 2002,