

Daphne GOUDRY

Political Counsellor ITU, UPU, UNCTAD, Digital

Daphne Goudry was born in Pune, India, on March 20th, 1991. She obtained a Master's Degree in Public Affairs, from the Institute of Political Sciences of Paris.

She began her professional career as an officer in the French Navy, as part of a military volunteer service. Embarked for a year on the aircraft carrier "Charles de Gaulle", she held the position of Deputy Chief of Staff of the Commander, and carried out an operational mission.

In 2016, she joined the Ministry of Defence in Paris, as an external partnerships and liaison officer, a position she held for three years. In 2019, she shifted towards geopolitical and strategic analysis, specializing in Africa and Asia.

Since October 2023, she has joined the Permanent Mission of France to the United Nations Office in Geneva, where she is responsible for monitoring UNCTAD, ITU, UPU and digital issues.

Her mother tongues are French and English, she also speaks Spanish and Hindi.