

Ms. Mina Seonmin Jun

Policy Advisor

Korea Information Society Development Institute

Ms. Jun is working as a Policy Advisor of the International Cooperation Research Division at the Korea Information Society Development Institute (KISDI). She holds a master's degree in Global Business Management. She has over ten years of experience on international telecommunications policy issues, including the International Telecommunication Union (ITU) and the Asia Pacific Telecommunity (APT).

Ms. Jun is currently the Vice Chairman of ITU-D SG 2. She served as a Chairman of Committee 5 Chair at 2022 Plenipotentiary Conference(PP) and as a Chairman of Working Group of the Plenary at 2022 World Telecommunication Development Conference (WTDC). Also, she was a Chairman of WG1 of the APT Preparatory Group for PP-22 and WTDC-22, and the Chairman of Working Group of Management Committee on APT Legal Instruments. She was a Vice-Chairman of the APT Policy and Regulatory Forum from 2016 to 2021 and was elected as a Vice-Chairman of RPM-ASP for WTDC-22. Ms. Jun also serves as the Vice-Rapporteur of ITU-D SG1 Q7.

She has been participating in the activities of the ITU since 2013, and she was a Korean Delegation for UN WSIS+10 review process and Internet Governance Forum. She is striving to increase the participation of domestic sector members and academia in ITU activities and increase women's participation in ITU activities.
