

Renata Santoyo, Telecommunication Regulation Expert – International Affairs – ANATEL/Brazil (renataf@anatel.gov.br)

Renata Santoyo (born in February 8, 1980) is currently working with International Affairs at Anatel, the Telecommunications Regulator in Brazil, where she is also a government officer since 2005.

She is graduated in law with specialization in Telecommunications Regulation by the University of Brasília (UnB), by the National Telecommunications Institute (INATEL) and has Master's degree in Roman Law and Contemporary legal systems (Università di Roma Tor Vergata).

Over almost 18 years in Anatel, Ms Santoyo has served as Legal Specialist in Satellite Regulation Management (March 2005 - March 2006); Legal Specialist in Engineering and Product Certification (March 2006 - August 2009); Deputy Chief of Internal Affairs (August 2009 - May 2013); Legal Advisor in the Certification and Numbering Management (May 2013 - Dec 2015); Legal Advisor to Counselor Otavio Rodrigues (December 2015 - March 2016); Specialization Standardization Coordinator in International Affairs (March 2016-2017) and as Telecom Expert in International Affairs from January 2020 until now.

She was also Chairman of Anatel's Ethics Committee (2007 - 2013).

She speaks English, Italian and Spanish.