Biography:

Susanna Mattsson, Deputy Director at the Swedish Ministry of Finance and Swedish Councillor to ITU, has a PhD Degree from Stockholm School of Economics and a Bachelor of Economics Degree from Uppsala University. She has been Deputy Head of Delegation to ITU Plenipotentiary 2018 and 2022.

Susanna worked at the competition department at the Swedish Post and Telecom Authority (PTS) between 2005 and 2014. At PTS her main task was to act as project manager for analyzing relevant product and service markets within the electronic communications sector susceptible to ex-ante regulation according to EU-regulation. In 2013, Susanna was appointed as an inquiry secretary in the Government public inquiry tasked with reviewing the Swedish Broadband Strategy. She has thereafter acted as an expert in a number of public inquiries commissioned by the Government. Since 2014, Susanna has served at the Swedish Government Offices with matters concerning digitalization and electronic communications. She has been responsible case handler at the Government Offices for a number of legal acts in the area of electronic communications that have been negotiated in the EU.
