

Shahira Selim

Director, International Relations, NTRA

Shahira Selim is Director of International Relations at the National Telecom Regulatory (NTRA), of Egypt, where she is responsible for managing the bilateral, regional and multilateral activities of NTRA. She joined NTRA in 2005, where she worked on bilateral relations, and then specialized in ITU activities and has been participating in ITU meetings and conferences since 2009. These include the ITU Plenipotentiary Conference, World Telecommunications Standardization Assembly, World Telecommunication Development Conference, and the World Conference on International Telecommunication 2012 (WCIT-12) and ITU Council and Council Working Groups.

Shahira also represents Egypt in Arab and African group meetings related to these conference, where she served as Chair of WG3 on International Public Policy Issues of the African preparatory group for ITU PP22, and as Chair of WG1 on administration and management of the Arab preparatory group for the same conference.

From 2021 – to 2022, she served as Vice Chair of the Expert Group on the International Telecommunication Regulations (ITRs) on behalf of the Arab states.

Shahira holds an MA in Counselling Psychology and a BA in Mass Communication and Psychology from the American University in Cairo.