4. Transport and access

- Airport: Queen Alia International Airport is located approximately 35 km south of Amman's city center. Travel time is about 45 minutes by taxi or shuttle.
- Taxi: Taxis are available outside the airport terminal. It is recommended to use official taxi services for reliability.
- Public Transport: Amman has a network of buses, and apps like "Careem" and "Uber" are widely used for convenient transportation.
- The Telecommunications Regulatory Commission (TRC) of Jordan is kindly offering complimentary transportation services for meeting participants between the airport and their respective hotels.

To benefit from this service, registered participants are kindly requested to provide the following details:

1. Travel itineraries (arrival and departure flight details).
2. Hotel information (name, address, and contact number of the hotel).
3. Participant contact information (mobile number for coordination purposes).

By using the link created on the Commission's website for those interested in arranging airport transfers. Should you require assistance in securing transportation from the airport, please feel free to use the link provided below:
