Americas Telecommunication Indicators Edition 2000

via ITU Website

The report is published to coincide with ITU's Americas TELECOM 2000. The report reviews developments in developing countries of the Western Hemisphere (primarily Latin America but also the Caribbean) telecommunication sector. The report includes 60 pages of analysis of trends including privatization, mobile, the Internet, and regulatory and policy issues. Three annexes provide information on privatization, WTO commitments and Universal service policies. Five regional tables covering key telecommunication indicators for the years 1998 or 1999 are included as well as four tables showing the top ten telecommunication operators in Latin America by revenue, main lines, mobile subscribers and international traffic. A directory with names and websites of telecommunication ministries, regulators and operators in the region is also included.

GENERAL CONDITIONS OF SALE

■ Prices

The prices quoted in the catalogue, as well as in the separate lists of ITU-R and ITU-T Recommendations and the publication notices, distributed free of charge and visible on the Web at the address are in Swiss francs (CHF) and are subject to change without notice. Discounts of 15% are granted to Member States and Sector Members participating in the work of the ITU. The discount to Administrations of the Least Developed Countries (LDCs) has been increased from 40% to 80% of the catalogue price on all ITU publications, as well as to libraries of educational institutions (for online subscriptions and CD-ROM publications only). Please note that the minimum price for a publication bought from the Electronic Bookshop is Twenty Swiss francs (CHF 20.–) and that there is no discount via this service.

<http://www.itu.int/publications>

All additional information concerning CD-ROMs, online Recommendations and the ITU Electronic Bookshop can be found in the Catalogue of publications and its associated Lists of ITU-R and ITU-T Recommendations.

■ Methods of payment

All publications ordered from the ITU must be paid for in advance. Payments can be made:

- a) by credit card: American Express, Eurocard/Mastercard, Visa;
- b) by bank transfer to the UBS SA, Geneva, ITU Geneva, Account No. 240-C8765565.0;
- c) by cheque made payable to the ITU;
- d) by international postal order;
- e) to the ITU postal cheque account: ITU, Geneva, 12-50-3 (from within Switzerland);
- f) or by UNESCO coupon.

Payments normally should be made in Swiss francs (CHF). Payments may also be made in other currencies, freely convertible into CHF, provided that, when converted by the bank, the price of the service in CHF is covered. The ITU does not accept Letters of Credit.

For faster order processing, we invite you to either prepaid by credit card or take advantage of a new service by opening and ITU deposit Account.

■ Forms of dispatch

The catalogue price includes the cost of dispatch by second-class mail or the means of carriage most advantageous to the ITU. Dispatch can be requested in other forms: i.e. air mail (express and registered), EMS, Federal Express, TNT, diplomatic pouch. If one of these alternative methods is chosen, the dispatch cost will be added to the quote. Customs duties and other taxes or dues levied on imported goods are not borne by ITU. ITU accepts no responsibility for loss, delay or damage in shipment.

■ Return of publications

Where a publication found to be faulty is returned to the ITU, the latter's responsibility shall be limited to replacement of the publication and payment of the costs arising from such replacement. Any publication returned to ITU as unwanted must reach it within two (2) months from the date of its dispatch to the customer, subject to the ITU's prior agreement. A minimum charge of Fifty Swiss francs (CHF 50.–) will normally be invoiced to the customer by the ITU for return of the publication to stock.

In the case of electronic publications (CD-ROM and online), these general conditions shall apply, subject to the specific derogation provisions contained in the licence agreements. The placing of an order implies full acceptance of these general conditions of sale.

None of the provisions of these general conditions of sale shall be interpreted as constituting a derogation or renunciation of the privileges, immunities and facilities enjoyed by the ITU in accordance with the international agreement applicable to it, in particular the Headquarters Agreement concluded with the Swiss Federal Council on 22 July 1971, as well as the Swiss law or any other relevant national legislation.

Please note that orders cannot be taken over the telephone.
They should be sent by telefax or electronic mail.
