To the Director General

Dear Sir/Madam,

1 Following the dispatch of Circular Letter CR/261 dated 3 August 2006, describing electronic notice types applicable to terrestrial services other than broadcasting in the planning area and bands governed by the GE06 Agreement, and comments received from Administrations, the Bureau is pleased to announce the availability of guidelines that provide comprehensive and up-to-date information regarding the submission of electronic notices to terrestrial services other than broadcasting under the provisions of the GE06 Agreement.

2 The document, titled “Guidelines for GE06 submissions related to terrestrial services other than broadcasting” and representing the most recent version of the information contained in Circular Letter CR/261, is being updated by the Bureau whenever the need arises and is available on the ITU website at the following address:

<http://www.itu.int/ITU-R/terrestrial/pub-reg/notice-forms/index.html>

These guidelines supersede the information contained in the annexes of Circular Letter CR/261.

* This Circular Letter is primarily addressed to the Member States of Region 1 (except Mongolia) and to the Islamic Republic of Iran. It is for information only for other Member States.

3 Administrations of the Member States in the planning area governed by the GE06 Agreement are invited to consult this document with a view to obtaining the most recent information concerning the notification process of terrestrial services other than broadcasting that are governed by the GE06 Agreement.

4 Administrations are also invited to participate in BR regional or world seminars where the Bureau provides up-to-date and complementary information on the application of radio regulatory and other procedures, as well as on the submission of G11 to G14 notices in the context of the GE06 coordination and notification procedures.

5 The Bureau remains at the disposal of your Administration for any clarification you may require with respect to the subjects covered in this Circular Letter.

Yours faithfully,

Valery Timofeev
Director, Radiocommunication Bureau
