

Ms. Mina Seonmin Jun

Policy Advisor

Korea Information Society Development Institute

Ms. Mina Seonmin Jun is a Policy Advisor in the International Cooperation Research Division at the Korea Information Society Development Institute (KISDI). She holds a master's degree in Global Business Management and has over fifteen years of experience working on international telecommunications policy issues, particularly in relation to the International Telecommunication Union (ITU) and the Asia-Pacific Telecommunity (APT).

Ms. Jun is currently serves as Vice-Chair of ITU-D Study Group 2, Vice-Chair of the Council Working Group on WSIS & SDGs, and Co-Rapporteur for Question 7/1 of ITU-D Study Group 1. She has demonstrated strong leadership and procedural expertise as Chair of Committee 5 at the 2022 ITU Plenipotentiary Conference (PP-22) and as Chair of the Working Group of the Plenary (WGPL) at the 2022 World Telecommunication Development Conference (WTDC-22). These roles highlighted her ability to manage complex negotiations, facilitate consensus across diverse Member States, and uphold the integrity of conference procedures.

Ms. Jun has also contributed extensively to APT activities. She currently serves as Vice-Chair in the APT Preparatory Groups for WTDC-25. Prior to this, she consistently played active roles, including as a member of the bureau, in the APT Preparatory Groups for previous WTDCs and Plenipotentiary Conferences.

In addition, she has made significant contributions to policy and legal discussions within APT, serving as Chair of the Working Group of the Management Committee on APT Legal Instruments and as Vice-Chair of the APT Policy and Regulatory Forum from 2016 to 2021.

Ms. Jun has been actively involved in ITU activities, advocating for broader inclusion of domestic stakeholders, including Sector Members and academia, and promoting gender equality through increased participation of women in ITU work.

Her in-depth understanding of development issues, including the digital divide, accessibility, WSIS and SDG agendas, combined with her broad multilateral experience and dedication to consensus-building, make her an outstanding candidate for the Chair of the ITU-D Telecommunication Development Advisory Group (TDAG) for the 2026–2029 term.
