

Mr. Bálint Végh

Mr. Bálint Végh
Advisory Senior Manager
PwC
Hungary

• Forum Session

Session title: 5G testbeds: laying the groundwork for smart cities

Room: Room 3 - Plasma

Time: Tuesday, September 10, 2019, 3:45 PM - 5:00 PM

Role: Moderator

Biography

Bálint is a technology consulting and product expert with 10+ years industry experience at top European operators. He is the head of telco consulting at PwC Hungary, managing a broad range of technology, media and telecommunication related projects across state owned and private companies.

Balint has a commercial background and has hands on product development and management experience gained on the Hungarian and International market having worked for Deutsche Telekom, Vodafone and Liberty Global in Luxembourg, Germany and Hungary. His work includes the 5G Strategy of Hungary, several utility telco projects and market entry/growth strategy projects across multiple industries including automotive, telecoms, utility and manufacturing.