Title of Workshop: The role of technology to involve civil society in the Agenda 2030 achievement / Empodera.org & Ideathons for the SDGs
Organiser: Fundación Cibervoluntarios

Emerging Trends

• Technological volunteer to increase the rights, opportunities and capacities of thousands in situation of digital vulnerability

• Act local and respond globally thanks to replicable and open technology

• Building Agenda 2030: By involving local communities directly in initiatives and concrete actions related to the SDGs.

Concrete Actionable Items Identified

• Generate alliances that leads to digital transformation with social impact

• One strategic point: access and appropriation of technology through Digital Competences

• Replicable, collaborative and sustainable processes to involve Civil Society in the Agenda 2030

• The collective intelligence platform Empodera.org: Ideathons for the Sustainable Development Goals

Challenges

• Universal Internet access and digital competences are axis vital to accelerate the progress of humanity

• Work together to make internet access and technological appropriation a universal right