

Disclaimer: The present living document is designed for information and personal travel planning purposes.

The information contained in this document is grounded in official Romanian communiqués and advice provided by the Romanian MoFA.

Given the fast-evolving nature of the pandemic situation, the references used in the present document are subject to change in response to changes to global or national health authorities' guidance on the virus and will be updated with no delay while the update of the present document will require processing time (clarifications will be required for specific scenarios or cases).

The information contained in the columns below are for easy reference for the reader and do not replace or supersede the Official Communiqués and Decisions of the Host Government.

	Entry in Romania¹	Entrance to the Romanian Parliament	Access to restaurants & hotels	Additional information
Persons who are expected in an official capacity by a permanent mission/representation/delegation or by an international organisation	Starting March 9th 2022, 00.00 hours, Government Decision N°171 of February 3rd 2022 on the extension of the state of alert on the territory of Romania and the establishment of measures applicable throughout it for the prevention and combatting of the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, is no longer into effect. Therefore, all restrictions inherent to the COVID-19 pandemic, as well as the restriction or prohibition of certain activities provided for in said legal instrument have been lifted.	-The entrance to the Parliament does not require sanitary COVID-19 certificate(s);	No restrictions.

Business Continuity and Contingency Plans for ITU events in Bucharest

What happens in case a delegate is tested positive?	Participants to PP who present with symptoms of coronavirus: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If they feel unwell, should stay at their hotel. • Should get tested, especially if they are at especially high risk. • Should avoid or reduce social contact, especially with people at especially high risk • Should wear a facemask when out and about. • Should inform PP organizers and favor remote participation when possible. Participants to PP who have tested positive: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Should inform others about their test results as soon as possible, especially PP organizers and people at especially high risk. • If they are sick should stay at their hotel and avoid or reduce contact, especially with people at especially high risk. • Those who belong to the especially high-risk group should consider contacting a medical specialist so that they can evaluate early COVID-19 treatment. • Should wear a mask when out and about.
Participants to PP who had contact with someone who tested positive:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Should get tested, especially those at high risk. • Should reduce contact with others for a few days if possible, especially with people at especially high risk. • Should wear a mask when out and about.

¹ <http://eviza.mae.ro/covid19>