

6.2 United Nations and other organizations

R 101      Exchange of documents between the ITU and the United Nations (C-1948)

The Council,

having considered the provisions of Article V of the Agreement between the ITU and the United Nations, considering that, as the Secretary-General has stated, the United Nations sends him free of charge many of the documents of the United Nations and its specialized agencies, resolves to authorize the Secretary-General to send free of charge to the UN the documents and publications of the ITU as long as this reciprocal arrangement is maintained. However, in order to avoid the dispatch of documents and publications which could be of no interest to UN and the specialized agencies, the Secretary-General will arrange to send to the Secretary-General of UN only such documents and publications of the ITU as he desires to receive.

R 126      Relationship between a national and an international mandate (C-1949, last amended C-1976)

1      that any person accredited by a competent authority of the Union to represent the ITU at an international conference or meeting of another organization is precluded by reason of the fact that he represents the Union from holding any national or international mandate as a representative at such conference or meeting;

2      to request the Members of the Union to facilitate the enforcement of this decision.
