The Internet Society (ISOC) is a non-profit organization founded in 1992 to provide leadership in Internet-related standards, education and policy. With offices in Washington D.C. (USA) and Geneva (Switzerland) plus three regional bureaus, it is dedicated to ensuring the open development, evolution and use of the Internet for the benefit of people throughout the world. The Internet Society provides leadership in addressing issues that confront the future of the Internet, and is the organizational home for the groups responsible for Internet infrastructure standards, including the Internet Engineering Task Force (IETF) and the Internet Architecture Board (IAB).
