

Call for Speakers

ITU-D Regional Development Forum for the Americas Region:
“NGN and Broadband: Opportunities and Challenges”
Santo Domingo (Dominican Republic)
25 (afternoon) -27 November 2009

Contacts: riccardo.passerini@itu.int; juan.zavattiero@itu.int

At the kind invitation of the Instituto Dominicano de las Telecomunicaciones (INDOTEL), the Telecommunication Development Bureau (BDT) of the International Telecommunication Union (ITU) is organizing the Regional Development Forum for the Americas Region “Next Generation Networks (NGN) and Broadband, Opportunities and Challenges”. The Forum will be held from 25 (afternoon) to 27 November 2009 in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

Participation in the ITU Regional Development Forum is free of charge and open to ITU Member States, Sector Members and Associates, as well as to any individual from an ITU Member State wishing to contribute to the work. Individuals belonging to international, regional or national organizations may also participate. The Academia and all associated and related Institutions are all welcome.

The main aim of this Regional Development Forum, whose theme will be “NGN and broadband”, will be to inform participants of the latest technological developments in the telecommunication sphere, particularly network migration to NGN and the implementation of broadband infrastructures. This should facilitate the elaboration of deployment strategies in each country. The forum will also lay emphasis on exchanges of experience in regard to the technical, economic and regulatory considerations aspects of the multimedia networks and broadband multiservices currently in the process of being introduced.

The discussions will be held in English and Spanish and simultaneous interpretation will be provided. The documents for this event will be available, with regular updates, at <http://www.itu.int/ITU-D/tech/indexDevelopmentForum.html>
