

Roxanne Maria McElvane, Esq. Senior Counselor, International Development Strategic Analysis & Negotiations Division, International Bureau, U.S. Federal Communications Commission Chair, International Telecommunications Union, Development Sector (ITU-D) Study Group 1

- Licensed to practice law in Washington, D.C., New York, and before the United States Supreme Court.
- Served as Legal Advisor for one FCC Commissioner and two FCC Bureau Chiefs.
- As IB Senior Counsel, develops and drafts FCC and United States positions on communications policy, regulatory, and development issues for international meetings; coordinates these positions with FCC, other U.S. government agencies, the private sector and multilateral organizations to ensure consensus, clearance, and effective advocacy; provides analysis and information on international communications matters to the International Bureau as requested.
- Serves as Chair of ITU-D Study Group 1; with Vice Chairs representing Asia, Africa, the Americas, CIS, the Arab States and Europe, and 9 Rapporteur Groups, works to produce consensus guidelines on communications matters called for by ITU World Telecommunications Development Conferences.
- 2010-2014, served as Chair of ITU-D Study Group 1 (enabling environment, cyber security, ICT applications, and Internet-related issues); with Vice Chairs from all regions, 9 Rapporteur Groups, and nearly 400 participants, produced more than 300 guidelines on communications matters, including training materials on cyber security.

Juris Doctor Degree from the Howard University School of Law; Bachelor of Science Degree from American University, Washington, DC.