

Concise Biography – Kirk Sookram

Kirk Sookram is presently employed as the Manager – Spectrum Planning, Management & Monitoring at the Telecommunications Authority of Trinidad and Tobago. He has been employed with the Authority for the last ten (10) years, starting as a Telecommunications Engineer and now serving as a Manager for the last four (4) years.

Kirk is a national of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago and currently resides there. His qualifications include a Bachelors of Science Degree (with Honours) in Electrical & Computer Engineering from the University of the West Indies and a Masters of Science Degree (Distinction) in Operational Telecommunications from Coventry University, United Kingdom. During his tenure at the Authority, he has specialized in spectrum management, wireless technologies, telecommunications regulation, cost modeling and policy development.

Kirk also serves as the Vice Chairman of the Caribbean Spectrum Management Task Force which was established by the Caribbean Telecommunications Union.