BIOGRAPHY

Amit Singh is the Vice President of the South Pacific Computer Society (SPaCS) since 2011.

He is the IT Manager of a Multinational Corporation called Goodman Fielder International in Fiji since 2010 which operates across the Pacific. Amit has been in the IT industry for twenty years with experience ranging from the Agricultural sector, Chartered Accountants Practice, Automotive industry, National Tourism office and Tourism & Hospitality Industry and currently in the Food Manufacturing industry.

He was a representative of the Fiji Information Technology industry in the USP IT committee for the introduction of the two new ICT prorgammes that have been granted provisional accreditation with the Australian Computer Society.

.