Name   : Allan Watt

Title   : Dr

Designation   : Cyber Program Coordinator/Lecturer

Organization : Centre for Policing Intelligence and Counter Terrorism, Macquarie
University

Biography   :

Dr. Allan Watt is the Cyber Program Coordinator at Centre for Policing Intelligence and Counter Terrorism (PICT), Macquarie University. Previously he served in the New Zealand Army and the New Zealand Police, for a combined period of 18 years. Most of his Police service was as an Intelligence Analyst. In 1999 he formed his own computer forensics business and in 2008 moved to Sydney Australia, where he was the Head of e.Forensics, for a Litigation Support firm before taking a position with the NSW Police Force, State Electronic Evidence Branch.

In May 2013, he commenced as a fulltime lecturer with PICT. He has completed over 1000 Digital Forensic Examinations and is a recognised expert witness in many jurisdictions.

In early 2014, he was appointed as an Expert Member to INTERPOL Cyber Security Panel. He continues to conduct research into Cyber Terrorism and Trafficking of Child Abuse Material.