

The sustained well-being of children

Children are healthy, educated and protected

Our communities, Our people

Achieving transformational change

Taking a partnership approach is critical

Integrated programming - health, education, sustainable livelihoods

Engaging, empowering and equipping people to lead

Leveraging off local leadership structures

Delivery that is proactive, effective, cost efficient and has impact

The education investment

The impact of ECCE on a country's development

Working with parents as first teachers

Working with communities to raise visibility of the importance of education

Working with government and national stakeholders: the community voice

For Children. For Change. For Life

