

Curriculum Vitae

Bonifasius Wahyu Pudjianto obtained his Doctoral Degree in IT Technology Program at KAIST University, South Korea in 2012 (Korean Scholarship Program) and finished and Master of Production Process Engineering at Bandung Institute of Technology (ITB) in 2000 (Agency for Assessment and Application Technology's scholarship program). His bachelor degree obtained from Bandung Institute of Technology (ITB) in Mechanical Engineer in 1992.

Currently He is appointed as Director of International Marketing at The Indonesian Agency for Creative Economy. His current duty mostly deals with empowering creative people to be able to promote and sell their product to international market.

Previously, he worked in Ministry of ICT and responsible for e-Government implementation, particularly on E-Government Application. Several achievements on Government projects has been received such as design and implementation safe and secure internet program, establishing Presidential Instruction on e-Government, setting up several e-Government standard, procedure and guidelines, initiation and development a national e-procurement system, overseer on ICT Learning Project for Yogyakarta Province.

In the mean time, he is also active in several international co-operations and Member of International working group such as ApecTel WG on E-Government, WSIS (Indonesia committee member), ITU, Open e-Governance Forum, Korea Indonesia Cooperation projects, and many others.

For further contact, he can be easily be reached through the following email boni.pudjianto@bekraf.go.id / mobile +62.815.72914419