

Su Peng is director of Huawei SEA Network Marketing & Solution Sales Department, he is responsible for broadband business development and industry collaboration. He joined Huawei at 2008, has experience of working at South-East Asia region, West Europe region, China region for supporting key operators' business on strategy development, solution and marketing, innovation cooperation etc. Before joined Huawei, He has 11 years working experience for other industry vendors, responsible for innovation, product development and management respectively.

He holds MBA degree and Bachelor degree of computer software from FuDan University (China)