Abstract:

Cyberwarfare Is emerging in Africa, the reasons are numerous and there are concerns this is negatively influencing digital growth. This session will look at the evolution of cyber dangers targeting African users and organizations and examine the latest trends. The goal is to touchpoint on the key entry points in use and the kinds of scenarios organizations from the different industries are being confronted with.